

New roads to adventure

By houseboat, bike, horse, ski or on foot, there are many ways to visit Lyon and the surrounding area. Here's a quick look at the different ways to discover the region's many possibilities.

Canyoneering, kite surf and hikes: for adventure-lovers, sports fans or spectators. With non-stop action and a real oxygen boost! Each one can choose his or her pace and activity for an exciting time. In the Rhône-Alpes region, we love the outdoors. We set aside time to enjoy nature and take in a good, deep breath of the outdoors. Long weekends in the country and nature outings give you all the benefits of green surroundings and the enjoyment of beaches, lakes and rivers.

Many students on campus are not from Lyon but from cities in the region. Some of them return home every weekend. Visiting them and their families is a good way to get to know the area around Lyon, in particular the countryside!

A few ideas for outings in the region:

Les Dombes Located on the Route des Etangs to the northeast of Lyon, this area is home to a bird sanctuary, the Villars-les-Dombes Ornithological Park, with around 250 different species. (a 45-minute drive from Lyon)

Péruges is a medieval city to be visited (30min).

The Parc Naturel du Pilat (Pilat nature park) has 1,500 km of marked trails (one hour from Lyon)

The gorges de l'Ardèche (3h)

Stone houses, small squares, narrow streets and waterways for canoes and swimming.

The Lubéron region and the Mediterranean, with Marseille and its many calanques, or coves (two and a half to three hours from Lyon).

Ski resorts in the Alps:

On average, it takes two to two and a half hours to get to the ski slopes from Lyon.
